Description:

This stunning Mediterranean Villa blends contemporary style with complete renovation, offering sweeping sea views and your own private pool.

Set on an 825 m^2 plot with around 250 m^2 of living space, the home has three bedrooms upstairs plus a den (right now, it's a nursery), and three bathrooms—two full, plus a guest toilet. The master suite looks out over Miraflores Golf and the glittering coast beyond, making mornings here something else.

The main floor is wide open and bright, with a sunny living and dining area that flows into a sleek, modern kitchen. Picture an island centerpiece, top-of-the-line appliances, and gorgeous countertops—perfect for everything from family breakfasts to impromptu dinner parties. Thanks to its southwest orientation, sunlight streams in all day and you get those killer sunset views.

Sliding doors open straight out to your private backyard: a covered terrace, lush garden, and a pool with nothing but open views and the sea in the distance. Whether you're hosting friends or enjoying a quiet evening, this space really shines.

On the entry level, the garage is set up as a gym, but you've got options—it can be whatever suits your life. Solar panels make the whole place energy efficient, and you have central air and heating, so you're comfortable year-round.

This home blends Mediterranean charm with modern comfort. It's the easy, breezy lifestyle you've been dreaming about, in one of the coast's most sought-after neighborhoods.

Riviera del Sol sits just a few kilometers from La Cala de Mijas—close enough for a quick trip, but far enough to carve out its own space. You're about a 30-minute drive from Malaga International Airport, so getting in and out is a breeze. Want to shop? La Canada, a massive mall with 200 stores plus plenty of bars and restaurants, is less than 20 minutes away by car.

The beach here stays pretty calm—definitely quieter than the ones in the bigger resorts nearby. You'll find a classic chiringuito serving up food and drinks right on the sand. There's also a golf course if you're up for a round.

Head just off the main coastal road and you'll hit the commercial center, packed with bars, restaurants, and a handy supermarket. Honestly, there's no shortage of places to grab a drink or a bite—whether you want something lively in the heart of the action, or you're after those more local, tucked-away spots closer to the residential areas further out.
