Beschreibung:

Nestled within the serene village of Wolviston, Musgrave Terrace stands as an exquisite 18th Century period property, marrying historic elegance with modern comfort. This outstanding residence, spanning over 1700 square feet, is discreetly tucked away in a quiet cul-de-sac, providing a private and peaceful haven in the heart of the North East.

Step into a beautiful and neutrally decorated home that seamlessly combines original period features with contemporary design, creating a canvas for the discerning buyer to add their personal touch. The house offers two receptions, a separate dining room, a downstairs cloakroom, and a utility room off the kitchen, offering versatile living spaces. While preserving its historical character, Musgrave Terrace eagerly awaits new owners to imprint their style. The property's neutral decor provides a versatile backdrop, inviting buyers to infuse their personality and preferences into this timeless canvas.

Ascend the staircase to discover three large bedrooms that offer both comfort and style. The large family bathroom, with its bath and separate shower, is superb and more generous than would be usual of a house of this age.

The property boasts a lovely terraced rear garden, perfect for al fresco gatherings, and a separate front garden on its own plot, providing coveted off-street parking—a rare commodity. These outdoor areas enhance the charm and practicality of this gorgeous residence.

Locally, Wolviston, surrounded by picturesque countryside, is renowned for its community spirit and easy access to local amenities.

To experience the allure of Musgrave Terrace and envision your life in this distinctive home, arrange a private viewing by contacting our office. Embrace the blend of history and modernity in this Wolviston gem, where a new chapter of refined living awaits.
