Costa Rica's Guanacaste coast is known for its warm climate, especially during the hotter days. The Oaks Condominiums provide a comfortable haven when looking to escape the hotter Guanacaste days. The two-bedroom condominiums are designed to offer ample space and modern amenities, ensuring a cosy and relaxing space. The lush, well-maintained surroundings of The Oaks create a tranquil atmosphere that provides respite from the sun-soaked days, and best of all, you are just a step away from a lap-lane salt-treated pool.

The two-bedroom condominiums at The Oaks are thoughtfully designed to cater to the needs of both families and couples. The spacious layout allows for privacy while offering common bonding and relaxation areas. Families can enjoy quality time together in a comfortable setting. The on-site amenities, such as a swimming pool, communal spaces, dog park, and recreational facilities, cater to various preferences and add to the appeal of this destination.

The Oaks Condominiums also benefit from being close to essential amenities. Nearby towns offer grocery stores, restaurants, medical centres and local markets, ensuring that residents can access everything they need for a comfortable stay. The sense of community within The Oaks adds to the overall experience, allowing residents to connect with like-minded individuals and families who also appreciate the beauty of the Guanacaste coast. The Oaks 53 includes all furniture and appliances turn-key, ready to move in or rent.
