Beschreibung:

The subtropical climate, with 320 days of sunshine a year, makes Torrox Costa the destination with the best climate in Europe. Here you can enjoy crystal clear beaches, hiking trails, cliffs and many opportunities for sports and outdoor activities. The area enjoys an excellent gastronomic and commercial offer.

Located in the beautiful town of Torrox Costa, specifically in El Peñoncillo. This townhouse is a real gem in the property market. With a built area of 101 m², this three-bedroom, two-bathroom property offers comfort and elegance in every corner.

Built in 1998 and in perfect condition, this house also has two terraces with a total of approximately 50 m² where you will be able to enjoy the stunning sea views.

The property can be accessed from both facades. From the street on the lower level is the garage with space for two vehicles and fitted out to serve as a meeting room with a bar and small office. A flight of stairs leads us to the entrance of the house where we find the main terrace with sea views and south orientation with electric awning. We can access the house from the entrance or from a glazed winter porch. Further on we find the living-dining room with fireplace and air conditioning, a space used as a laundry room taking advantage of the stairwell, independent fully fitted kitchen, complete bathroom and finally another terrace which is the other entrance of the property.

An interior staircase leads to the upper floor where we find the bedrooms, all of them exterior, and a complete bathroom. The master bedroom has a terrace with views.
