Beschreibung:

Presenting this countryside house with 5463sqm land area located in the council of Câmara de Lobos.

Surrounded by green and characteristic warm climate that Câmara de Lobos provides, this property offers plenty of ways to create your own business concept. Already existing a vineyard it is possible to develop a wine production combined with accommodation units.

According to its traditional aspect the house can be restored keeping the relation between present and past by giving to it your personal touch and idea. Featuring 4 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, kitchen, 2 living rooms, balcony with amazing views and plenty of space in the outside to park vehicles. The property also provides 3 different accesses through the road. Land's construction index allows to build more buildings according to its 6,100sqm total area.

The historic municipality of Câmara de Lobos is known by its traditional fisherman village where Sir Winston Churchill painted a picture in 1950, today known as Churchill's Bay. The local food and drink are scabbardfish and poncha, a must try for all visitors.
