A Torre - This beautifully designed modern villa for sale is a statement of heritage and design - an architectural masterpiece inspired by the regions rich past.

Set on historic grounds once home to the ancient lagoon of Pederneira, where pilgrims flocked to the iconic Monte de S. Brás and the sacred site of the Church of S. Gião, its name honours the belief that a medieval tower ("torre") once stood watch over these lands.

A home that rises from the valley with bold, contemporary grace - its clean lines standing in quiet contrast to the ancient rocks that surround it. Anchored by a dramatic stone wall, built from boulders hewn from the earth itself, A Torre feels sculpted into the land - reaching toward the raw beauty and deep past of this remarkable location.

Set above the landscape, with sweeping, uninterrupted views over the valley below. Though distinctly modern in design clean, sharp, and deliberate - it is a home that draws its strength from the land that holds it.

Inside, large windows and airy living spaces let natural light pour in, as if nature itself is part of the design. Each floor opens onto a generous balcony, blurring the line between indoors and out.

Every morning, you'll awaken to the sun rising over a rolling green valley - a living painting that's yours to admire. It's a daily moment of wonder, reserved only for a place as rare and magical as this.

This is a one-of-a-kind villa:

A place to slow down, live more connected, and find joy in the everyday moments: a quiet coffee as the valley wakes up; a long lunch outdoors with pure countryside air and birds chirping; a short hike to a beautiful coastline; evenings spent gazing at the same stars that guided generations before us.

Positioned strategically between premium beaches on Portugal's Silver Coast, every day offers new discoveries. You're minutes from the golden shore of Salgado Beach, with its impressive coastline and panoramic views, perfect for seaside walks, sunbathing or simply unwinding to the rhythm of the waves.

Nazaré presents a different energy, with its world-famous giant waves and unique fishing village traditions. For families, São Martinho do Porto's sheltered bay provides the ideal setting for sun-filled days, water activities, or relaxing with oceanfront dining and fresh seafood caught directly by local fishermen.
