Vila Nova de Famalicão is one of the most entrepreneurial municipalities in the country. The dynamism of its youth, the efficiency, diversity and qualification of human resources, the quality of life and sustained growth make Vila Nova de Famalicão a municipality with a future, good to live in and good to invest.

With companies that are a national and international reference in the textile, footwear, food, public works and tire production sectors, Famalicão is, without a doubt, a municipality with a brand!

With an area of 209 square kilometers, Famalicão is in the group of the largest municipalities in Portugal, with 140 thousand inhabitants. It is close to major cities such as Porto and Vigo, in neighboring Spain, and is close to the Atlantic sea and the mountains of the interior of Portugal.

Excellent motorway network;
Modern and efficient railway line;
Proximity to the Port of Leixões, about 25 minutes away;
Proximity to Sá Carneiro Airport, in Porto, and Vigo.

Famalicão presents itself as an attractive municipality for those who want to invest, with measures that enhance the creation of business, but also the growth and development of companies.
