Beschreibung:

Urban plot located in a consolidated residential area of Espartinas, ideal for those looking to build their own home in a quiet environment and well connected to Seville.

The plot has approximately 156 m² of surface area, in a street made up of single-family homes already built, which allows you to easily visualize the type of building possible.

According to the indicative urban analysis carried out, the plot would allow the development of a single-family home with an approximate area of 120130 m² built distributed over two floors, which offers an ideal solution for a comfortable and functional family home.

Indicative example of possible distribution

- * Approximate ground floor: 60 65 m²
- * Approximate upper floor: 60 65 m²
- * Approximate total built area: 120 130 m²

The final configuration must be verified by means of the corresponding urban planning consultation or technical project.

The environment is quiet and residential, with consolidated homes and good connection to Seville and the rest of the Aljarafe, which makes this plot a very interesting option for self-developers who want to design their home to measure.
