Allow us to introduce this sophisticated new apartment development nestled on the hillsides of Torreblanca, Fuengirola—an ideal setting to embrace the Mediterranean lifestyle in a calm suburban environment. With only 71 residences, it offers an intimate community atmosphere, free from the crowds and noise of the city centre.

Despite its tranquillity, the vibrant heart of Fuengirola is just minutes away, as are the beaches of Los Boliches, Torreblanca and Las Gaviotas. A bus and taxi stop sits right at the entrance, and Torreblanca train station is only a three-minute drive.

The terraces provide countryside, sea, or mountain views and blend seamlessly with spacious interiors to extend your living space year-round. The development also features a full range of health, leisure, social and business amenities for the whole family. Here, you can choose to unwind completely or enjoy a wide array of activities without ever leaving home.

Set within lush tropical gardens, the outdoor pool invites you to savour long summers filled with bright mornings and stunning sunsets. A spa, heated indoor pool and fully equipped gym support a healthy and balanced lifestyle, creating a peaceful environment designed for relaxation and wellbeing.

Residents can also enjoy a private cinema, gastro bar and social lounge—perfect for spending time with friends, family and neighbours. And for those who need to balance work and leisure, the exclusive on-site business centre offers a convenient professional space within the community.
