Fresh on the market is this beautifully converted and ready to move into house of character. Located on a quiet village street in UCA in Mqabba. This one of a kind home was lovingly converted by its present owners with much care and attention to detail. It boasts a wide facade and a very pretty and private 46sqm courtyard. All the rooms overlook the courtyard with the exception of the master bedroom that overlooks the street. Being sold complete with a stunning large kitchen library and some other furniture pieces. The ground floor consists of a warm and welcoming entrance hallway with a cosy lounge area on one side and floor to ceiling library with reading area on the other side. A small guest toilet a splendid kitchen in pristine condition with lots of cooking and dining space and a gorgeous dining room beautifully adorned by thick stone exposed walls and stone slab ceilings. All rooms are abundant in natural light as they surround the delightful courtyard. On the first floor are the two double bedrooms one with its own en suite a large bathroom with the most stylish fittings and accessories and a neatly furnished washroom. The airspace on top of the library was never constructed and this space could easily host the third bedroom. This house comes complete with photovoltaic panels access to a water reservoir and an instant water heater. Each room has both underfloor heating and air conditioning. This property is easy to maintain and very practical to live in. Not hard to fall in love with this magnificent house. Freehold
