Beschreibung:

Unique - Sublime 18th Century Chateau, entirely restored over the years, having preserved all its splendour as well as its original features. Combining comfort, character and grand volumes. This remarkable property comprises 3 fully independent residences : main residence of 386 m², residence 2 of 116 m², and an independent guest gite of 217 m² (they all could be reconnected if desired).

In addition, there is a 200 m² outbuilding/garage (over 2 levels) which can be renovated according to one's wishes and requirements.

The entire estate offers 12061 m² of grounds, including a magnificent landscaped park to the front of the chateau, an olive grove beyond the park (ideal for parking), plus a shared courtyard at the rear of 1470 m² (currently used for parking with the 4 other co-owners of the chateau's annex residences).

A true haven of peace in the heart of the vineyards, steeped in history, offering immense potential and a wealth of possibilities (ideal for events, guest rooms, seasonal rentals:).

A must-see without delay.

The department of Hérault is in the Languedoc-Roussillon region located in the south of France. It is surrounded by the Pyrénées-Orientales, Ariège, Tarn and Aude departments.

Widely regarded as possibly the most dynamic department in Languedoc Roussillon with Montpellier as its capital and the popular seaside resorts of Sète and Grande Motte bringing in millions of tourists every summer, the Hérault department is certainly busy and growing.

But despite all the activity along the coast, the interior of Hérault is as beautiful and unspoiled as it has always been. The Hérault countryside is glorious, driving away from the coast into the foothills of the Black Mountains you can get lost in an ocean of vines.

Villages in the department of Hérault are incredibly pretty. Roquebrun is stunning, with its bridge and old water mill on the river Orb. St Guilhem-le-Desert is also beautiful - and one of Languedoc's top tourist spots.

Hérault is also a favourite of Brits looking to move to the area. Pezenas and Lodeve are both popular towns - Pezenas used to be the region's capital and is becoming quite chic.

In short - the department combines beautiful countryside with the buzz and glamour of a major city (Montpellier).

We at Cle France specialise in Property for sale in France through our network of Agents and French Registered High Street Estate Agents. We have sold thousands of houses for sale in France over the years and have helped many find and buy their dream home in France.

We can also help you with everything to do with buying a house in France including getting a mortgage, organising currency exchange, renovation advice, property surveys, planning permission, French translation, opening a bank account and everything to do with French property sales.

All our prices are quoted as FAI (agency fees included) unless otherwise stated and 'notaire' fees are around 7% (on average) but feel free to ask us for an exact amount on any particular French property for sale you are interested in.

Indeed please feel free to use the 'MAKE AN ENQUIRY' tab above to ask us any questions you have about buying a property in France. Our UK based enquiry office and staff will guide you through the entire buying process step by step from your first contact right up to taking ownership and beyond, all free of charge.

So when you buy through Cle France you can be confident that you are paying no more than the standard commission rates you would pay anyway, but you have the added benefit of a bi-lingual support team.
