Beschreibung:

In a privileged environment, this apartment stands out above all for the exceptional quality of its exteriors and its living environment. Nestled in a carefully maintained residence, it offers direct access to extensive landscaped gardens and an elegant swimming pool, creating a rare, almost timeless atmosphere.

Bathed in natural light throughout the day thanks to its south-west exposure, the apartment benefits from a constant and soothing light. Its large windows open directly onto a green setting, with an unobstructed view of the gardens and the swimming pool, inviting relaxation and contemplation.

Here, everyday life takes on a holiday feel. Between the green spaces, the outdoor facilities and the surrounding calm, you feel a real feeling of refuge, like in a holiday home. The generous outdoor spaces allow you to enjoy every moment to the fullest: having lunch in the open air, reading in the shade of the trees, sharing a drink with friends or simply relaxing in the sun. Children can play there in complete freedom in a safe and serene environment, making this place an ideal environment for family life.

The residence benefits from a high level of security with a concierge service, guaranteeing tranquility and serenity on a daily basis. This protected setting further enhances the attractiveness of the property for families looking for a peaceful and safe place to live.

A safe investment in one of the most sought-after residences in the Cascais line, in Estoril, perfect for lovers of tranquility. The property, with its large living room and two bedrooms, also includes two parking spaces and a cellar. The residence offers top-of-the-range services: security and concierge service, meticulously maintained gardens, outdoor swimming pool, gym, sauna and massage area. For special occasions, the condominium offers sumptuous reception rooms, retaining all the palatial charm of the original property.

It is also possible to acquire the semi-detached apartment, strictly symmetrical to it, thus offering a rare opportunity to join the two lots to create a spacious T4 type apartment. This configuration would make it possible to design an even more generous living space that is perfectly adapted to the needs of a large family or an exceptional main residence.

Located in a residential area made up of luxury residences, this haven of peace offers silence and privacy, while benefiting from a strategic proximity to the center. The location is also ideal for families thanks to the presence of renowned international schools nearby, making daily life easier and enhancing the attractiveness of the area.
