Beschreibung:

Štrigova, Robadje – house with a surface area of 130 m² with an established hospitality business, located near the well-known Mađerkin Breg viewpoint. The house extends over two floors. The ground floor consists of an entrance hallway, a kitchen with a dining area, a bedroom, a room currently used as storage, a bathroom with a toilet, and an enclosed terrace intended for social gatherings and celebrations. Next to the house there are vineyards and a residential container. The property has electricity and water connections, while a gas connection can be installed. A few hundred meters from the family house there is a small house with a terrace where the hospitality business is carried out. The building contains a kitchen, a toilet, and has electricity and water connections. The property has a long-standing tradition in hospitality and an established business, which allows the future owner to continue the business and generate additional income. Robadje is a settlement within the Municipality of Štrigova, located approximately 25 km from Čakovec and 27 km from Varaždin, close to the Slovenian border. In the immediate vicinity there is the well-known Mađerkin Breg viewpoint, Terme Sveti Martin, wineries, and various other attractions.
