A Masterpiece of Light and Character: Stunning 4-Bedroom Home in Pont de l'Arn, France

Nestled in the heart of the picturesque Tarn department, this exceptional stone residence in Pont de l'Arn offers a rare blend of timeless French character and modern, high-standard living. Combining the charm of a Maison Bourgeoise with the airy, bright proportions of a contemporary sanctuary, this property is more than just a home—it is an invitation to embrace a life of tranquility, culture, and breathtaking natural beauty.

Architectural Elegance Meets Modern Comfort

Spanning an impressive 216 m² of habitable space across two primary floors, the house is a masterclass in thoughtful restoration. From the moment you step inside, you are greeted by an abundance of natural light streaming through large, strategically placed windows. Unlike many historic properties that can feel enclosed, this home breathes.

The structure itself, built with traditional thick stone walls, provides both the aesthetic appeal of a classic French period home and the practical insulation benefits that keep the interior temperate year-round. This is complemented by a traditional tile roof and classic wood shutters, maintaining the authentic silhouette of a historic Maison Ancienne. Every inch of the renovation has been executed with meticulous attention to detail, adhering to high standards—including American-style electrical and plumbing considerations—to ensure peace of mind for the next owner.

Interior Living: Spacious and Serene

The ground floor is designed for both functional family living and elegant entertaining. The heart of the home is undoubtedly the expansive eat-in kitchen. Featuring a professional-grade gas stove with an electric oven, it is a culinary dream. A beautiful wood-burning fireplace anchors the space, providing warmth and an inviting ambiance during the cooler months, while the dining area creates a natural hub for morning coffee or evening gatherings.

The ground floor also features a generously sized 28.30 m² living room, which serves as a seamless extension of the outdoors. Open the doors to find a massive terrace, complete with a traditional banister, offering an unobstructed, panoramic view of the majestic Black Mountains (Montagne Noire). A convenient ground-floor bedroom and a dedicated laundry/bathroom suite add to the versatility of the layout.

Ascending to the first floor (108 m²), you will find three bedrooms and two bathrooms, each finished with an eye for grace and comfort. The master suite is a private retreat, boasting 15.83 m² of space plus a contemporary en-suite tiled shower room. The secondary bathroom is a showstopper, featuring a luxurious claw-foot tub and elegant period-style fixtures that perfectly honor the home's heritage. The additional rooms—including a large, flexible space currently used as a study and second living area—offer plenty of room to tailor the home to your specific needs, whether that be as a family residence or a sophisticated retreat.

Outdoor Living and Lifestyle

The property sits on a lush 892 m² plot of land. The landscaped garden is a verdant escape, populated with established trees, bushes, and fruit trees, creating a private oasis in the heart of the village. The garden provides the perfect vantage point to admire the changing hues of the Black Mountains.

For those who value convenience, the property excels. It includes an indoor garage and an additional secure, locked off-street parking space. Practical needs are fully met with high-speed fiber internet

(perfect for remote work), mains gas central heating, and mains electricity, water, and drainage. Storage is plentiful, with a full-size, insulated attic with hardwood flooring and a dedicated basement, ensuring your living areas remain uncluttered.
