Project Overview

The View Hurghada is an established residential and touristic development extending across approximately 200,000 sqm. The multi-phase community combines a central location with a relaxed resort-style setting. It is suitable for permanent residents, holiday homeowners and buyers seeking a substantial property in the Red Sea region. The development's established surroundings provide convenient access to local leisure facilities and everyday services. Large standalone villas with private outdoor space offer additional appeal for families and long-term investors.

Location

- Central Hurghada location
- Convenient access to beaches

- Close to restaurants and entertainment areas
- Access to marinas and daily services
