Beschreibung:

Some plots of land inspire us to imagine the possibilities. This 600 m² plot in Furneira, Estreito de Câmara de Lobos, gives you a tangible starting point.

An architectural concept by CUBE Architects proposes a contemporary three-bedroom (T3) home, with a total construction area of 239 m² spread over two floors. Distinctive lines, generous spaces and a strong connection with the surrounding landscape define the concept for this future home in Madeira.

The centrepiece? A 58.20 m² open-plan space combining the kitchen, dining room and living room, opening onto a balcony where an infinity-edge jacuzzi is proposed. A setting designed for entertaining friends, unwinding and making the views part of everyday life.

The upper floor is designed to include a master suite, two additional bedrooms, a family bathroom and a balcony. A garage, utility room and guest WC complete the proposed layout.

Local Madeiran stone, natural wood accents, concrete and glass give the concept a contemporary identity and distinctive character.

For those looking to build a home tailored to their own vision, the opportunity starts here: 600 m² of land, sea and mountain views, and an architectural concept that is already taking shape.

Bring your ambition. Come and discover the setting.
