Located in Saint John's.

The harbour front Redcliffe Quay area is strategically located to take advantage of passing tourists traffic and passengers from Antigua's major cruise ports in the heart of the city's downtown area.

Over the past 20 years, intense restorations by the owners Key Properties Ltd., have transformed the quay's Georgian buildings into an attractive 66,000 sq ft. of retails stores and restaurants.

Set amongst pretty gardens the commercial retail units and corporate offices are situated along the seafront boardwalk that straddles the water frontage between the Nevis Street and Heritage Quay cruise Ship Docks. The pedestrian walkway continues to the Government's new cruise facility and fifth cruise ship dock on Newgate Street, which on completion will be able to host 5 cruise ships simultaneously.

Historical Redcliffe Quay presents a rare opportunity for an investor seeking to own prime commercial real estate in the heart of the city of St. John's, Antigua.
