A property on the village periphery of St. Antonio das Areais with several buildings in need of renovation and with open views.

The first building is 40 sqm with a bedroom, kitchen, sitting room, dinning room and an outdoor bathroom. It has its own entrance and offers endless possibilities such as a tourism unit, studio, workshop etc.

The second building also has its own entrance and is over two floors. There is a traditional Alentejo hearth, sitting room bathroom and three bedrooms on the first floor.

This property has retained many of its traditional features such as a wooden ceiling, wooden flooring, wooden shutters, Alentejo heart, slate flooring, potentially turning it into a beautiful home or tourism.

The land size is 1000 Sqm where it is possible to park several cars, build a swimming pool and much more. There are several olive trees and cork-oaks. In addition, there is a further vegetable growing area for those who want to grow their own food.

Electricity, mains water and sewage.

Marvão and Castelo de Vide are a 10 minute distance and Portalegre a 20 minute distance.

In the village you will find a small supermarket, chemist, health centre, dentist, hairdressers, builders merchants, petrol station, restaurant, coffee shop, indoor swimming pool etc.
