Carousel Homes offer for sale this complete reform property walking distance to amenities.

The property is approx. 180m2 including a rear garden. The property does need everything reformed including the roof.

There is a large rear garden clearing required.

The property is situated in the village of Alguena walking distance to amenities. Electric and water is not currently connected to the property but the buyer can connect with new service contracts.

This is a renovation project not for the faint hearted and will require expertise and experience.
