The purpose of the existing building is catering - tourism.

The property can be reconstructed and keep the existing purpose, and another option is to demolish the building and build a new building. In the case of reconstruction, the entire interior design, roof change and landscaping are required.

Given the location of the facility (the center of the business and commercial part of the town), it is possible to build a mooring for 100 utilities and 200 nautical berths, and there is an option to build a marine gas station.
