Barranco del Infierno. Albanchez, Almeria Spain.

Total to buy both in one sale 57,000 euro

With its glorious natural scenery, excellent climate, welcoming culture and excellent standards of living, Spain is quickly gaining a reputation as one of the most desirable places across the world to live or visit.

On offer here is a chance to make a smart financial investment in this magnificent part of the world.

Two storey 3 bedroom, 2 bathroom town house with roof terrace and courtyard garden, situated in the town of Macael in Almeria Province. Set in a plot of 196m², the house has a total build size of 164m² including a large roof terrace with views across the town to the hillsides beyond.

The municipality of Macael is famous for its marble production, and the town offers all amenities including shops, supermarkets, banks, cafes, tapas bars, schools, sports facilities and a 24 hour medical centre. The nearest airport is situated in Almeria city, just over an hour's drive from the property. Parking is available just a short walk from the house and the municipal swimming pool is about a 15 minutes walk away.

Whilst the house is habitable to a basic standard, it is in need of renovation / modernisation throughout and has the potential to become a lovely family home. The front door opens into the living room and from here a couple of steps lead up to a basic kitchen with a door to the walled garden. The garden gives access to a good sized storage room with original fireplace.

There are two ground floor bedrooms with access via the living room, one with an ensuite bathroom. There is also a separate family bathroom leading off the kitchen, along with a marble staircase leading up to the first floor which comprises the third bedroom and a large landing area with access to the roof terrace.

Electricity & water are available for connection, along with telephone and internet.

This is a fantastic holiday home and an easy lock up and leave.

Also on offer is 3 plots of land for development

Poligono 8, Parcela 59 – 1622m²

Poligono 8, Parcela 262 – 3393m²

ABOUT THE AREA

Almeria is a province in southern Spain bordered by Granada, Murcia and the Mediterranean Sea. The capital city is Almeria. There is an international airport at Almeria and you also have Granada and Murcia airports close by.

The area is said to be the driest in Europe; the inland areas of the province experience some 3000 hours of sun each year; an area where no vegetation grows in desert-like landscape. The coastline stretches for 214km, making up approximately 25% of the whole Andalusian coastline.

The name Almeria derives from the Arabic occupation, originally Al-Mariyya, meaning The Mirror, as it was compared to The Mirror of the Sea. The capital city of the same name, Almeria was an Arabic stronghold and the principal harbour in its domain. The Moorish castle of Alcazaba is the second largest of the Arabic fortresses in Andalusia, after the Alhambra in Granada.

Almeria city itself is a lively, modern commercial city; culturally it is very Spanish, with few foreigners residing in the centre. There is a ferry port – where you can take a trip over to North Africa, a sports marina and a working fishing port. A visit to the city is definitely worthwhile; it has a good selection of galleries, museums and shops, as well as lots of pretty squares along the main central avenue Las Ramblas.

Sitting next to the provinces capital is the modern tourist resort of Roquetas de Mar, a modern tourist destination, offering all of the facilities and attractions that you could wish for in a holiday destination.
