Street-level commercial space of 188 m², ideal for creating a space tailored to your business needs. With ample layout possibilities and a versatile structure, this space offers a solid foundation for developing an attractive and functional commercial project. It also includes an approximately 4 m² outdoor patio, providing an additional, very useful area for storage or complementary uses. The property boasts a 6-meter shop window, perfect for maximizing visibility and capturing public attention. It features automatic doors for convenience and accessibility, a practical restroom for daily use, and is in a condition that allows for renovations to best suit your business's identity. Located in a busy commercial area, the space is surrounded by amenities such as leisure facilities, restaurants, cafes, and gyms. This dynamic environment fosters a constant flow of potential customers and provides a vibrant and convenient atmosphere for both employees and visitors. Renting this space presents an opportunity to position your business in a strategic area with high visibility and numerous advantages. At Walter Haus, we'd be delighted to guide you every step of the way to find the perfect space for your project.
