Περιγραφή:

Two adjacent developed plots are for sale on Camí de Fanadix, in Moraira (Alicante), one of the most exclusive, peaceful and sought-after residential areas on the Costa Blanca.

With a total area of 1,850 m², they consist of a 900 m² plot priced at €415,000 and another 950 m² plot priced at €390,000, which can be purchased separately or together. Both plots are urban and have connections to water and electricity services with a south-southwest orientation.

They are in a great location, in a private residential area, on a cul-de-sac. Just a few minutes from the beaches of Moraira, supermarkets, restaurants, schools and all amenities. The Moravit-Cap Blanc area, where they are located, is one of the most highly valued in the municipality due to its tranquillity, its surroundings and its excellent transport links to Benissa, Calpe and Alicante airport, which is less than an hour away.

These plots represent a magnificent opportunity for those who wish to build two independent homes, each with its own access, garden and swimming pool. An ideal option for those looking to invest or create their home in one of the most beautiful enclaves, with sea views, perfect orientation and all amenities available.

Utilities: Water and electricity connections.

Access: Located on a cul-de-sac.

Orientation: South.
