Description

Excellent opportunity to acquire a 13 hectare rural property located directly along the main highway just outside Singayta with easy access to services and great visibility.

This property is ideal for creating a private ranch agricultural project or countryside retreat. It has water available and electricity runs very close to the property making future development straightforward.

The land includes a small casita and approximately 1 800 Tommy mango trees offering strong agricultural and income potential.

Conveniently located only 10 minutes from San Blas this property combines productive land accessibility and proximity to town services and the coast.

A versatile investment with excellent potential for farming eco projects or a tranquil rural lifestyle.
