Περιγραφή:

Nestled in the heart of a preserved valley spanning 13 hectares, this historic estate, formerly a grain mill (1643) and later a paper mill (1750-1860), offers exceptional versatility for a wide range of projects. Its vast structural volumes, natural setting, and heritage are perfectly suited for eco-tourism (gites, guest houses, immersive retreats), wine tourism (tastings, tours, workshops), or prestige events such as weddings, seminars, and private or cultural receptions.

With nearly 1000 m2 of living space plus various outbuildings, the estate offers the possibility of being sold as a whole or in several lots. This allows for the creation of hybrid and evolving projects, blending viticulture, luxury accommodation, and event hosting.

A unique geographical and viticultural setting: situated in an atypical microclimate for the region, on a rare terroir of dolomite, shale, and limestone, the vineyard allows for the expression of prestigious grape varieties unusual for the Herault, such as Pinot Noir, Riesling, and Viognier. This singularity gives the wines a distinct and original identity - a powerful asset for niche markets and ambitious viticultural ventures.

The department of Herault is in the Languedoc-Roussillon region located in the south of France. It is surrounded by the Pyrenees-Orientales, Ariege, Tarn and Aude departments.

Widely regarded as possibly the most dynamic department in Languedoc Roussillon with Montpellier as its capital and the popular seaside resorts of Sete and Grande Motte bringing in millions of tourists every summer, the Herault department is certainly busy and growing.

But despite all the activity along the coast, the interior of Herault is as beautiful and unspoiled as it has always been. The Herault countryside is glorious, driving away from the coast into the foothills of the Black Mountains you can get lost in an ocean of vines.

Villages in the department of Herault are incredibly pretty. Roquebrun is stunning, with its bridge and old water mill on the river Orb. St Guilhem-le-Desert is also beautiful - and one of Languedoc's top tourist spots.

Herault is also a favourite of Brits looking to move to the area. Pezenas and Lodeve are both popular towns - Pezenas used to be the region's capital and is becoming quite chic.

In short - the department combines beautiful countryside with the buzz and glamour of a major city (Montpellier).
