

Living in Montecala Gardens also means you can also enjoy the communal areas of the consolidated Pueblo Montecala estate, with several swimming pools, a social club, a children's playground, large garden areas, and community parking. All integrated into the surroundings of Cumbre del Sol, an exclusive destination offering services such as a supermarket, an equestrian centre, sports facilities, restaurants, and the prestigious international Lady Elizabeth School. #13; #13; #13; #13;

Some of the most stunning coves on the Alicante coast are just a few minutes away, along with a network of trails by which you can explore the Mediterranean landscape on foot or by bike. The close proximity to towns such as Moraira, Jávea, Altea, or Calpe, combined with excellent transport links to airports and AVE (High-speed train) stations, makes Montecala Gardens an ideal choice for both holiday stays and permanent residence.
