It gained its first municipal independence in 1874, but it kept it for a very short time, only two years. It is divided into two parts, St. Lucia and St. Barbara, according to the names of two churches that exist in its area. Kostrena is located in the immediate vicinity of the city of Rijeka, framed by the Martinšćica Bay and the Bakar Bay. Our Kostrena peninsula is about 10 kilometers long and slopes gently towards The coast. Along its entire length, there are beautiful beaches that are visited by thousands of swimmers during the summer. The most famous and most visited are those in the Žurkovo bay, then Smokvinovo, Svežanj, Spužvina,

Podražica, Nova voda and Perilo. Kostrena consists of about twenty settlements, many of which were named after families, and today the most populated are Vrh Martinšćica, Glavani, Sv. Lucija, Rožmanići and Paveki. A characteristic karst area with Mediterranean plants and the famous Kostrena gromača, and a mild climate that sometimes yielding to strong gusts of the bora, are the characteristics of our region. The entire life of Kostrena and its people consists of the element of the sea, and thus their essential commitment, which has been maritime since the beginning of Kostrena's history. Kostrena has had famous captains all over the world, so it is Captain Pavao Randić was the first to sail through the Suez Canal on the eve of its opening. Kostrena also takes care of its cultural and social life, and organizes the events Autumn in Kostrena, Spring in Kostrena, summer events, Municipal Days, and during the winter the famous Kostrena masquerades in the National Reading Room and The Špažičari carnival group represents Kostrena every year at the International Carnival Parade in Rijeka. In Kostrena, a town of sailors and fishermen, there are a number of newly built villas, houses, and smaller buildings with luxury apartments with exceptional views of the sea and the forest in the background. A place that is organized to the size of a large city on a smaller geographical area, makes Kostrena an ideal place for life. The proximity of all amenities, forests and mountains, but especially the sea, promenades and natural beaches, sets Kostrena apart from the rest of the coastal belt.
