Charming Village Home with Garden - Full of Potential

Situated on the edge of a picturesque village, this charming home offers an excellent opportunity for renovation. Perfect for those seeking village life with the added benefit of generous outdoor space and a countryside feel, the property is brimming with potential.

The home features a gated front patio and off-road parking, creating a welcoming first impression. Entering through the patio, you are greeted by a private courtyard, with an additional courtyard to the left that wraps around to the rear of the property, offering lovely countryside views.

Externally, there are several useful outbuildings, including a room beneath the house and multiple large storage areas. One of these spaces was formerly an outdoor kitchen (now in need of restoration), and together they present exciting possibilities—such as creating a spacious kitchen-diner opening onto a patio.

Inside, the ground floor comprises a sitting room with access to the patio, a good-sized kitchen to the rear, a bedroom currently used for storage, a bathroom, and a further bedroom.

Upstairs, there are two additional rooms, along with a balcony terrace overlooking the patios below. A washroom is also located off the terrace.

Please note that a video tour is not currently available due to the number of items stored within the property.
