Magnificent villa located in the beautiful countryside of the western Algarve near the village of Barão São João, only a short distance to Lagos with its price awarded beaches and easy access to the rest of the Algarve.

The property with 23ha of land filled with centenary cork trees, pine trees, cypress and medronheiros, hills and walkways that make you lose yourself in the rich nature, all flowing in a magical way, with an amazing panoramic view of the countryside.

The property has approx 250m2 and consists of a big open plan living room with a beautiful modern kitchen, 2 bedrooms, bathroom, big open terrace with amazing views.

Adjoined there are two studio-apartments offering great views both with living area, bedroom, bathroom and kitchen. Maintained in care and style, the studios are the perfect guest house for visitors, staff, or for rental income.

Other great aspects of this property feature a central heating system in the main house. There are two wells for irrigation of the land and the building is solid with use of materials from Northern Europe making it fresh in the summer and warm in the winter.

There are also 2 ruins with the possibility of rebuilt. Great potential.
