Located in Town Area.

Chestertons is pleased to offer this family home, in Library Ramp, Gibraltar. Located within a private gated community next to the Garrison Library, the property enjoys a peaceful setting with views over gardens while remaining within easy reach of the town centre. Offering approximately 170 sq m of internal living space, this characterful home is filled with natural light. The impressive reception room features high ceilings, a working fireplace and expansive west facing windows overlooking the surrounding greenery. The separate kitchen sits away from the main living areas, while accommodation comprises of 3 bedrooms with fitted storage and a modern family bathroom with a full sized bath. Original features have been retained throughout, including decorative cornicing, parquet flooring in the entrance hall and hardwood floors in the principal rooms. To the rear is a private patio together with a separate utility room and additional toilet. Further benefits include a lock up garage and an allocated parking space nearby, both rare features in this central location. The property is offered largely furnished. A unique period home combining character, space and privacy in one of Gibraltar's most central locations.
