Περιγραφή:

Commercial store located in Canico, located on a dead-end street that guarantees a quieter and safer environment for your business.

The space has 75 well-distributed square meters, and is currently in rough, which allows you total freedom to design the finish according to the needs of your business, offering versatility for different types of commerce or service provision.

The store has a bathroom and two display windows, which provide excellent visibility to attract the attention of passers-by.

This property is ideal for those looking for a commercial point with a good location reference and potential to retain proximity customers.

Take advantage of this opportunity to acquire a functional space.
