About the Area

Privlaka is a municipality in Zadar County in Croatia. According to the 2011 census, there are 2,253 inhabitants in the area, 98% of whom are Croats. Privlaka a peaceful tourist resort situated only 18 km from Zadar and 5.5 km from the historical town of Nin. Privlaka is located on a large peninsula, so it is surrounded on three sides by the sea; on the northeast the gulf is closed by the Bay of Nin and on the south-west by the Canal of Zadar. The mild Mediterranean climate and the impact of the sea have greatly facilitated the development of tourism in this small fishing village. Clean air and geothermal mud make Privlaka attractive to people who have health problems such as asthma, rheumatism and arthritis.

In the underwater world around Privlaka you can find many caves, rich archaeological sites, shipwrecks and diverse, rich underwater life. Precisely for this reason, but also because of its natural beauty, Privlaka is popular among divers.

Privlaka mainly has numerous sandy coves which are abundant in beautiful sandy beaches, shallow and warm sea, which favours the development of family tourism right. Some of the beaches are located in small hidden coves; the most famous beaches in Privlaka are Loznica and Skoblari, sandy beaches suitable for children. There is also the beach Škrapavac, the first sandy beach with paved part and a nice entrance to the sea, it is also suitable for children.

Privlaka has a rich gastronomic offer that has been greatly aided by the development of tourism. In Privlaka you can find numerous cafes, restaurants, taverns and pizzerias where you can enjoy a number of Dalmatian dishes with a glass of homemade wine from Privlaka. The gastronomic offer includes a variety of local Dalmatian dishes prepared according to traditional local recipes. The offer includes daily fresh fish which, in combination with local, virgin olive oil, fresh vegetables and homemade wine provides a unique gastronomic experience. There are also indispensable meat specialties, which in no way lag behind those made of fish also cooked in a traditional Dalmatian style.
