Descripción:

For sale castle of Krimulda located in Sigulda, Latvia!

Krimulda castle was built in 1255 and belonged to Albert II. The castle was a property of Rigas Dom kapitel(the highest cathedral chapter under bishop) until 1566.

In 1625 Swedish King Gustav II gives Krimulda estate to admiral Gabriel Gabriel son Count of Oxershern as a gift.

In 18th century the estate belonged to captain Magnus von Helmersen.

In 1817 Krimulda estate is purchased by his serene Highness Count Johan (Ivan) Lieven.

The estate is located near the North-Eastern border of Sigulda and Krimulda districts in the territory of Gauja National Park.
