Nessebar is a Bulgarian city located on the Black Sea coast of Bulgaria, on a rocky peninsula 850 m long and 300 m wide, 37 km north of the city of Burgas. Nessebar is divided into two parts: New Nessebar, where most of the modern houses and hotels are located, and Old Nessebar, located on a small peninsula. The city of Nessebar is one of the oldest cities in Europe. It is the successor of an ancient Thracian settlement called Mesembria, which existed since the beginning of the first millennium BC. In 510 BC, it was turned into a Greek colony.
