Descripción:

Spectacular Quinta do Relógio Palace this 19th-century property was built in 1860, under the reign of His Royal Highness Dona Maria II, under the direction of architect Cinatti de Siena. It was the residence of His Royal Highness, El Rei D. Fernando II. In its gardens stands out the Clock Tower that gave the property its name. At this time the property belongs to the heirs of His Royal Highness el Rey D. João I and D. Filipa de Lencastre, Queen of Portugal. Neoclassical environment present in the sumptuousness of the ornamentation of buildings surrounded by an immense and dense vegetation, from which several species of trees stand out for their configuration and antiquity such as the Araucaria, the Plátanos and the Dracaenas. The outdoor space features different levels of terrain arranged around a courtyard where garages, stables and service quarters are located. Main building with ground floor, 1st floor and attic, porch, entrance hall, staircase illuminated by skylight, three rooms with sea view and direct access to the garden. Main house with 1148m², garage with 56m² and clock tower with bell tower with 24m², with 3 floors. House of caretakers with 492m². Garden and park with 1080m². It has about 40 divisions. The palace has a front of 145 meters, is overlooking the Tejo River and the Atlantic Ocean, just 20 meters from the sea.

It is 30 minutes from Lisbon International Airport and 15km from the city centre.
