The Residence du Chateau de Jouarres is located halfway between the city of Carcassonne and the beaches of the Mediterranean. Located in a private 5-hectare park between vineyards and the Canal du Midi, it comprises 90 spacious and very comfortable self-catering apartments. A short walk along the Canal will bring you to Homps town, one of the barge ports on the Canal with many bars and restaurants. Also, a short stroll from the apartment is the Jouarres Lake with swimming and Watersport facilities.

The complex is nestled in a wonderful woodland, it has two pools, a pool bar, a breakfast area, plenty of onsite storage for bikes, etc, and a BBQ area.

Places to visit nearby include the Cathar castles of Lastours, the medieval towns of Caunes Minervois, Minerve, or the chasm of Cabrespine. Alternatively, discover the local wines, such as Minervois, the benefits of olive oil, and cassoulet (a popular local dish).

If you are a lover of nature, you can climb to the Pic du Nore, hike in the gorges of the Cesse, go sailing on the Jouarres lake, or take a bike ride along the Canal du Midi.

The Residence is open from April to November. The apartment comes with 6 weeks of free usage outside July and August and great friends and family rates. There are a few years left on the lease, after which you can choose to renew the lease or keep it for your own use.

About the Area

Stretching from Provence to the Pyrenees, this sultry, sun-baked territory (now part of the greater Occitanie region) feels like a country in its own right. It's been a strategic border since Roman times and is awash with historical reminders, from Roman aqueducts to hilltop Cathar castles. Today it is best known for its vineyards, which produce a third of France's wines, and the busy beaches sprawling along its Mediterranean shore.

Each of Languedoc-Roussillon's three main areas has its own distinct landscape and character. Bas-Languedoc is home to the biggest beaches and the captivating cities of Montpellier and Nîmes. Inland lies the high, wild country of the Grands Causses and Cévennes, with a fascinating mix of hills, caves, gorges, forests and surreal moonscape plateaux. Roussillon, in the southwest, shares close ties with Catalonia just across the Spanish border, including traditional sardanes folk dances and a passion for rugby and vibrant summer festivals.
