Located in East Berlin, Friedrichshain is a lively and trendy district reminding of Berlin's Soviet past of the city. The Karl-Marx Allee, linking Alexanderplatz to Frankfurter Tor, offers a striking example of Stalinist architecture with its impressive dimensions. It is also a verdant area, especially the Volkspark, famous for its barbecue areas and the outdoor cinema. The area many shops, bars and restaurants around the Boxagheener Platz, famous for its flea market. The RAW, a cultural and alternative place, consists of former hangars converted into workshops, restaurants, sports halls, bars and clubs. Along the Spree, the former Berlin Wall has become an open-air art gallery, the East Side Gallery, hosting paintings by international artists. For several years now, this area has been experiencing real estate expansion. Several international companies, including Zalando, have established their headquarters in the neighbourhood.
