Property 1

The hallway opens onto a well-equipped kitchen that has been well-planned and provides ample work surfaces (including an island) and plenty of storage space. The kitchen leads to a dining room with glazed double doors opening onto a courtyard garden with seating and a barbecue. To the right, the sitting room is spacious and has a wood-burning stove with stairs leading to the first floor. From the sitting room, there is access to a conservatory relaxation room. This light and airy space has a feature electric fire.

Also on the ground floor, is a bedroom with two single beds and a modern shower room.

The first floor has a large double bedroom and fitted wardrobes. From the bedroom, an enclosed sun lounge affords magnificent views over the open countryside. From here there is access to an open terrace with table and chairs. The bathroom has both a bath and a separate shower. A picture window, strategically placed to enjoy the view while relaxing in the bath, adds a touch of decadence.

Property 2

A traditional cottage, having a private entrance, three double bedrooms, 2 bath shower rooms, a well-fitted kitchen and a split-level dining area with fireplace and a spacious living room that has glazed double doors leading to a terrace with outdoor dining facilities. The terrace is private and enjoys glorious views over the orchards.

At the front of the cottage, there is a swimming pool and a covered seating area with a barbecue. The land lends itself to many uses orchards, or the development of a vegetable plot. A separate entrance and parking have been created for the holiday rental property, allowing the principal house (which has its own entrance) to enjoy privacy.

The rental cottage is currently run as a business and benefits year-round occupancy, thus, making it an interesting business proposition.
