Learn more about Bairro Tristeza:

The Tristeza neighborhood is located in the South Zone of Porto Alegre RS. It is a commercial and service hub in the South Zone, with restaurants, shops, banks, pharmacies and others. It is bordered by the neighborhoods of Vila Assunção, Camaquã and Vila Conceição, as well as the Guaíba River.

The best thing about Tristeza is the diversity of services. In the neighborhood you can find EVERYTHING! From organic markets and fairs to renowned beauty salons. Banks and pharmacies, services in general are very well distributed and organized, completely meeting the demand of the neighborhood and also of neighboring neighborhoods, such as Vila Assunção.

Taking advantage of the diversity of services and entertainment options in the neighborhood is a good choice. In leisure time it is possible to enjoy the Tristeza square, Pubs among other options in the neighborhood, shop in the stores of Av. Wenceslau or even stretch to Barra Shopping.

Despite being a neighborhood that is growing and has so many shopping options, it still maintains an atmosphere of tranquility. It is quite wooded and close to the river, giving it a country town vibe.
