Descripción:

The elegant residence on the gentle slopes of Casale Monferrato is put up for sale among unforgettable landscapes, where the most valuable white truffle grows and Barber's wines are produced. The magnificent farmer house designed by the genius of the architecture of Luigi Vetti was elected an object of the World Heritage and harmoniously inscribed in the surrounding landscape. The area of the chambers of the estate is 1,800 square meters, it is surrounded by an open courtyard, on which large windows of the living room faces, connecting elegant residential premises with a green garden. Inside the building there are two living rooms, a dining room and an office with a library, five bedrooms with bath and dressing rooms, as well as three rooms for staff. The house has six elegant bedrooms with bathrooms and dressing rooms, as well as three rooms with baths for service staff. Ref: 10694
