Experience the best of Calheta - Jardim do Mar

Nestled in the serene village of Calheta, this inviting boutique bed and breakfast offers a cozy escape just a short walk from Enseada beach. With 11 thoughtfully appointed rooms, each featuring modern amenities like air conditioning and coffee or tea stations, guests can unwind in ultimate comfort. Many rooms also offer beautiful sea views, adding a touch of coastal magic to the experience.

Perfect for either family gatherings or corporate retreats, this property comfortably accommodates up to 22 guests and provides a warm, relaxed setting with ample space to make any stay unforgettable. Guests can enjoy leisurely afternoons in the on-site restaurant or soak in the soothing hot tub, while exploring Madeiras natural beauty. The renowned Levada Prazeres trail, located within a 25-minute walk, invites guests to enjoy breathtaking views and nature walks.

Only 10 minutes by car to Calheta Beach, the property is ideally situated to experience both local attractions and serene moments by the sea, blending a peaceful retreat with easy access to Madeira's best sights.

Jardim do Mar a quaint and picturesque village preserves the tranquillity of the old days with the traditional old narrow streets and low-level houses and became the islands meeting point for the international surfing community and has all sorts of waves, from point breaks to reef breaks.

We have a selection of different properties available to fit all your requirements so call us to enquire further and obtain more information.
