Descripción:

If you dream of an atypical town house with a pretty private interior courtyard in the historic district of Bayeux then here you are, it is composed as follows:

- Ground floor: a through entrance which provides access to the interior courtyard, a living room opening onto a dining room with bay window overlooking the courtyard, a hallway leading to a pretty fitted and equipped kitchen, a toilet.

- 1st floor: a hallway leading to a recent bathroom with Italian shower and toilet, a bedroom with mezzanine space above, 2 other bedrooms, one with a small dressing area.

- Upper level: a small bathroom, a bedroom with an additional office space, 2 bedrooms, one of which has a very attic.

The comfort of gas central heating.

Finally, you can enjoy the sunny days thanks to this charming interior courtyard.

The department of Calvados is possibly the most famous of the three departments in Lower Normandy, the other two being Manche and Orne. The inhabitants are called the Calvadosiens and it is located in the north east of the region.

Calvados gathers many different cultural and geographical areas in one spot, there are 4 main areas: in the west of the department we find the Bessin area, mainly around Bayeux; in the south west there is the "Swiss Normande" area, a hilly land with rivers; in the centre of the department we find Caen with flat agricultural land; the Auge area stands out in the east of the department as the typical Normandy image with its half-timbered houses.

Calvados appeals to most for its many beautiful landscapes and beaches including the WWII landing beaches.
