Boliqueime is a year round residential inland town, forming part of Loule Council strategically located in the heart of Central Algarve. Boliqueime village benefits from sea views and is surrounded by fields and hills. Each week day morning in the village you may hear the beep of car horns sounding the arrival of the mobile shops for freshly caught fish and hot baked bread for residents to queue up to purchase. In the heart of the main village is the Church Square with a Bank, Chemist, Post Office, hairdresser, dentist, restaurants, pub and cafe.

Boliqueime has a strong Portuguese community but is also home to a good mix of expats from the UK, Ireland, France and Netherlands to name just a few with many living here permanently or having a holiday home here. Boliqueime is famous for its annual Summer Festival Street Party taking place surrounding the village Church, where all are invited to a 3 day historic themed event with traditional food, drink, costumes, music and dancing held in the first weekend in July.

From Boliqueime there is easy access to the lively beaches, boat rides, shopping, restaurants, golf courses and nightlife of Albufeira to the West and Vilamoura to the East. The nearest beach is within driving distance recognised as one of the best in the world, Praia da Falesia (Falesia Beach). The fairly new (2018) shopping mall in Loule, Mar Shopping and the Castle Town of Loule is just a 10 minute driveaway and Faro International Airport just 30 minutes away. It really is a very versatile, typically Portuguese location.
