ABOUT THE AREA

Trinity Beach, Queensland, Australia

Our gated estate is very private and tranquil. The owners in the community appreciate their privacy. The large estate has no additional parking other than provided in individual carport/driveway

Trinity Beach is one of the favored Cairns beaches amongst locals. Trinity Beach is just as beautiful as the other northern beaches that line the Cairns Coral Coast but with a more down-to-earth and laid-back casual atmosphere amongst classy surroundings.

The majority of people at Trinity Beach are locals that reside in the beach suburb at the back of the beachfront esplanade. The beachfront has seen lots of self-contained holiday apartments and resorts being developed over the past decade and there are several high-end luxury accommodation apartments that now line this beautiful beach.

Trinity Beach is fast approaching the prominence of Palm Cove as restaurants and holiday apartments are popping up everywhere. Trinity Beach is a family-friendly beach and the kids will love the sandy beach and shady trees with year round safe swimming.

All holiday resorts and apartments in Trinity Beach cater for children and there is a beachfront playground and barbeque facilities and many family-friendly restaurants and takeaway shops that line a small section on the Trinity beach esplanade.
