Descripción:

Daimalos is a charming village located in the municipality of Arenas, in the region of Axarquía, province of Malaga. With a population of approximately fifty inhabitants, it is only 1.5 kilometres from Arenas, accessible by a road that connects both towns.

The setting of Daimalos is characterized by its natural beauty, with panoramic views of the mountains and surrounding countryside. This tranquility and rural charm make Daimalos an attractive place for those looking for a home in a serene and picturesque environment.

In terms of real estate, Daimalos offers a variety of options that reflect traditional Andalusian architecture.

We present you with a traditional village house with all the amenities to have a relaxed village life. It is a three-storey house distributed as follows:

On the first floor you will find a spacious and bright living room with fireplace, a fitted kitchen with plenty of space for cooking and storage, and a full bathroom with a shower. Through the living room we have access through the stairs to the second floor of the house.

On the second floor, we have two double bedrooms with plenty of space to put fitted wardrobes or king-size beds. We also have a very large independent full bathroom with all tiled walls and a shower. From this floor we have access to the street through a back door which gives the opportunity to divide the property in two or rent one of the floors with total independence.

Finally we reach the third floor where we find a third bedroom that is transformed into a kitchen for temporary use, which has a stove for cooking and a sink. A large third room to be converted into a third bedroom. From this floor we can go out to the large, bright and sunny terrace with wide views of the mountains and the town of Daimalo.
