This extraordinary 16th century Palazzo stands in the heart of Valletta as a testament to Malta's rich architectural heritage. A prestigious corner property set on three levels it exudes timeless grandeur with its imposing facade and elegant proportions.

Upon entering one is greeted by an imposing main entrance hall that sets the tone for the rest of the residence. At its heart lies a beautiful 30sqm central courtyard flooding the surrounding rooms with natural light and providing a serene focal point. A grand staircase a hallmark of noble Maltese architecture elegantly connects the three floors enhancing the palatial ambiance.

The palazzo boasts ten generously sized rooms each brimming with character and endless potential. Expansive reception areas soaring ceilings and historic architectural details create an opulent atmosphere ideal for conversion into a prestigious private residence or an exclusive commercial venture. Furthermore the property offers the approval of extending another floor to maximize its potential.

Whether envisioned as a luxurious home a boutique hotel or a refined office space this Valletta gem presents a rare opportunity to own a piece of history in one of Europe's most captivating cities.
