About the Area

Sauteurs is a charming coastal village located in the parish of St. Patrick on the northern tip of Grenada. Known for its natural beauty, friendly locals, and laid-back atmosphere, Sauteurs offers a peaceful escape from the hustle and bustle of everyday life.

The village is renowned for its stunning beaches, including Bathway Beach, one of the most beautiful beaches in Grenada. With its crystal-clear waters, soft sand, and lush vegetation, Bathway Beach is a perfect spot for swimming, sunbathing, and snorkeling.

Grand Etang National Park is also in this region, a protected area that offers hiking trails, waterfalls, and breathtaking views of the surrounding landscape. Visitors can explore the park's diverse flora and fauna, including exotic birds, monkeys, and iguanas.

The village has a vibrant local community, with friendly residents who are always happy to welcome visitors. Sauteurs offers a taste of authentic Grenadian culture, with its traditional music, dance, and cuisine. Visitors can enjoy fresh seafood, local delicacies, and lively festivals throughout the year.
