Descripción:

The greatest frontline site on the Mediterranean Coast, in Marbesa, East Marbella, is home to four distinctive residences. specifically designed to highlight the natural beauty of the surroundings. The large living area smoothly blends with the outside by combining the living room and terrace. Floor to ceiling windows that blend into the walls frame the unhindered views of the picture-perfect landscape. Every home has been strategically placed to face south, providing unmatched views of the Mediterranean Sea. Specifically designed over four floors, each area offers a seamless fusion of comfort and elegance. The ground floor's main level was created with comfort and communal living in mind. The spacious living area offers amazing views of the sea and is the perfect place to unwind and spend special moments with family and friends.
