ABOUT THE AREA

Candelaria is a captivating coastal town located on the eastern coast of Tenerife, the largest of the Canary Islands, Spain. This charming municipality holds immense cultural and historical significance, primarily due to the Basílica de Nuestra Señora de Candelaria. This basilica is dedicated to the Virgin of Candelaria, the patron saint of the Canary Islands, making Candelaria a vital pilgrimage site and a spiritual heartland for the archipelago. Unlike some of Tenerife's more bustling tourist resorts, Candelaria offers a more authentic Canarian experience, blending its deep-rooted traditions with the relaxed pace of island life. Its picturesque promenade, black volcanic sand beaches, and the iconic statues of the ancient Guanche kings guarding the plaza contribute to its unique appeal.

Beyond its religious significance, Candelaria provides a diverse range of activities for visitors. The town's main square, Plaza de la Patrona de Canarias, is a vibrant hub where local events and celebrations often take place. Visitors can stroll along the seafront, explore the town's charming narrow streets, and discover local shops, cafes, and restaurants serving traditional Canarian cuisine. The nearby beaches, such as Playa de Punta Larga and Playa de la Viuda, offer serene spots for sunbathing and swimming in the calm Atlantic waters. For those interested in the island's geological wonders, the mysterious Pyramids of Güímar are a short drive away, and the stunning natural landscapes of the Malpaís de Güímar special nature reserve are easily accessible for ecological exploration.

Candelaria's location also makes it an excellent base for exploring the wider wonders of Tenerife. The island's capital, Santa Cruz de Tenerife, with its vibrant port, shopping districts, and cultural venues, is just a 17 km drive north. Further north lies San Cristóbal de La Laguna, a UNESCO World Heritage city renowned for its well-preserved colonial architecture and rich history. For adventurers, the majestic Teide National Park, home to Spain's highest peak, Mount Teide, offers breathtaking volcanic landscapes, hiking trails, and stargazing opportunities. The diverse terrain of Tenerife, from the lush laurel forests of the Anaga Rural Park to the arid landscapes of the south, is all within reach, offering a wide array of activities including hiking, water sports, and exploring charming traditional villages.

Candelaria is well-served by Tenerife's two international airports. The nearest airport is Tenerife North Airport (TFN), located approximately 20-23 km away, typically a 20-25 minute drive. This airport primarily handles inter-island flights and some international connections. For a wider range of international and European flights, Tenerife South Airport (TFS) is approximately 40-45 km from Candelaria, usually a 30-40 minute drive. Both airports offer various transport options, including taxis, bus services (operated by TITSA), and car rentals, ensuring convenient access to Candelaria for both residents and tourists.
