This highly desirable “Charentaise” style village stone property is set in what is quite simply turning out to be the of the most sought after locations in the Charente of those described as “Petites Cities de Caractere” within the Nouvelle-Aquitaine. This particular property is more likely to turn the heads of visitors to the Village of Nanteuil-en-Vallee than any property, with its ornate white metal double gated entrance and wide sweeping stone driveway and elegant stone frontage with each first floor window having “Juliette balconies” alongside the well kept and pretty courtyard garden and terraces. The main house comprises of an attractive fitted kitchen, two very attractive and large living room spaces on the ground floor, The ground floor flows very well with open plan living areas either side of the attractive wide entrance hallway. Access to the garage and storerooms can be accessed via a door at the rear of the entrance hallway. The first floor is reached by ascending the bespoke wooden staircase, as you reach the top of the stairs you are greeted by a large landing area with seating areas and light flowing in from the Velux windows. You will find three of the five bedrooms off this central area alongside an office/study and access to the rear garden via a single door. The additional two bedrooms and family bathroom with separate shower are located down a corridor to the right hand side of the landing. The separate annex has a very pretty and private courtyard area with a French white Lily tree as a focal point which smells simply incredible when in bloom. The annex is well designed with a nice flow through to the modern and very functional kitchen area.
